Dear Mr. Marchessault,

In reference to your letter of August 10th, Booth Fisheries Corporation does not own property or engaged in business activity in the Coakley Landfill Site in North Hampton, New Hampshire. Our facility is located in the Boston, Massachusetts area. We are not aware of any hazardous waste or substances from our facility being disposed at the landfill site mentioned.

There is a Booth Fisheries building no longer owned by Booth Fisheries Corporation located in Portsmouth, NH. This manufacturing facility which still bears the Booth name is owned and operated by National Sea Products.

If specific information is needed related to our operation in Boston, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Harvey Lemovitz
